WELCOME TO WEYMOUTH

Whatever the outcome of to-day's Cup-tie with our Dorsetshire visitors, we can offer a warm Lancashire welcome to the only non-League club left in the competition. Theirs is every credit for reaching thus far for the first time in the club's long history. Called the 'Terras' by reason of their old terracotta and blue colours, the Weymouth Football Club was formed in 1890 at first as amateurs. In 1907 they joined the Western League, and then in 1923 they made their bow in the Southern League with a full professional side, but withdrew after five seasons, returning to the Western League, and not until 1949 did they rejoin the Southern League. In that first season they progressed to the 3rd Round of the F.A. Cup competition for the very first time, losing 4-0 to Manchester United. This completed the rejuvenation of the Weymouth club, so very nearly extinct through Wartime difficulties. Their ground, like Deepdale, was requisitioned, in fact for as long as eight years and handed back to a club with empty coffers in 1947.

Player-manager Frank O'Farrell returns to Deepdale on this notable occasion, he was a North End stalwart not so long ago and in every way an ornament to the game.

This will be Weymouth's first venture as far as the 4th Round, but since the war apart from that 3rd round defeat by Manchester United, they have reached the second round five times and the first round three times. This season's progress came by way of disposing of Dorchester 2-0 at home in a qualifying round replay, then they defeated the Athenian League amateurs Barnet 1-0 at home, followed by their best performance of the season when in the Second Round they accounted for Third Division's Newport County 1-0, again at home, then the recent 3rd round trip to Morecambe for another 1-0 win.

Frank O'Farrell is the second ex North Ender to manage the affairs of the Weymouth Club, the other being Willie Fagan a member of the 1937 North End F.C. Cup Final team, who set up a Weymouth first eleven captaincy record of 193 games. Another ex player figures behind the scenes, in the person of trainer Sammy McGowan, who between 1948 and 1959 made 471 first team appearances for Weymouth on the right wing.

Among the famous ones turned out by the "Terras" we recall "Farmer" Haines as their most prolific goal-scoring machine, ex Southampton and Portsmouth, who in five years in the '30s scored 275 first team goals. Since the War comes to mind another free-scoring menace, the ex Birmingham, Walsall, Bury and Chesterfield leader Dave Massart, who netted 158 times in five seasons for Weymouth.

Honours in 72 years include : Western League title (five times), runners up (three times), Southern League runners up (twice), Southern League Cup finalists (once), Dorset Senior Cup winners (eighteen times), runners up (twelve times).

In the Southern League this season Weymouth have but a modest record of success, and it is in the F.A. Cup competition that the club has achieved the limelight.

Colourful characters in the team include the 41-years-old goalkeeper, Billy Bly who makes a weekly round trip of 500 miles from Hull to play for the "Terras." Jimmy Ashall at right back is the former Leeds United player and Cliff Nugent the one-time Cardiff City inside forward. Weymouth now play in white shirts and because of the colour clash they will appear in red this afternoon.

BILLY BLY (Goalkeeper). 23 years with Hull City. Came out of retirement in November at the age of 41 after an appeal by Weymouth whose only experienced goalkeeper Bob Charles had smashed his arm in the first round tie with Barnet. He owns a sweet and tobacconist's shop in Hull.

JIMMY ASHALL (Right Back). Played ten seasons with Leeds United making 120 League appearances. At the moment is fighting to regain his fitness after a cartilage operation.

JOHN SHEPHERD (Right Back). Weymouth-born dock yard carpenter, he is one of the two "locals" in the side having joined the club from school.

PHIL STOCKER (Left Back). Maths and physical training teacher at Weymouth Grammar School, he interested many league clubs while playing as an amateur centre-forward for Barnstaple in Devon. Former England amateur trialist.

JIMMY ANDERSON (Right Half). A 28-year-old Scot, he joined Weymouth this season from Rhyl. He was previously with Bristol Rovers and Chester.

TONY HOBSON (Centre Half). The other "local" 21-year-old butcher Hobson has kept up the family tradition. His father Tony, an inside forward, played 100 first team games for the club while 21, and now his son has done the same.

FRANK O'FARRELL (Left Half). Weymouth's player-manager will need no introduction to the fans of Deepdale which he left only last summer, joining Weymouth at the start of July — after 118 League games for North End.

COLIN COURT (Outside Right). Born at Cwm, Ebbw Vale, he gained seven Welsh schoolboy caps. He joined Weymouth this season after playing for Chelsea and Torquay.

DES JONES (Inside Right). The other Welshman. Rhondda born, he signed professionally for Bristol Rovers after playing as an amateur with Swansea. For four seasons he was with Workington before joining Weymouth two years ago.

RON FOGG (Centre Forward). Londoner Fogg, the scorer of the deciding goal at Morecambe, joined Weymouth three years ago after being spotted playing Army football in Dorset. He was an amateur with Southend and Portsmouth and also had an England amateur trial.

CLIFF NUGENT (Inside Left). Born at Sheffield, Nugent made the grade with Headington and was then transferred to Cardiff City. A move to Mansfield followed before joining Weymouth two years ago.

BRIAN BEVAN (Outside Left). Born at Exeter, he played with Bristol Rovers as an amateur before signing as a professional for Carlisle. Last season he was transferred to Millwall, but after only a few games was injured and then joined Weymouth this season on a free transfer.
